Fund Management & Experience

Aberdeen Asset Managers Limited

Fund Start: 2015

Risks: The Fund primarily invests in emerging markets equities. Foreign investments involve additional risks, including currency fluctuations, liquidity, political, economic and market instability, and different legal and accounting standards; these risks are magnified for investments in emerging markets. The value of the Fund is influenced by factors impacting the overall market, certain asset classes, certain investment styles, and specific issuers. The Fund may incur losses due to incorrect assessments of investments by its investment advisers. Small and medium-sized companies often have greater price volatility and less liquidity than larger companies. Large cap companies may be unable to respond quickly to new competitive challenges a may not be able to attain a high growth rate. To the extent that the financials sector continues to represent a significant portion of the Fund, the Fund will be sensitive to changes in, and its performance may depend to a greater extent on, factors impacting this sector.

Fund Description

The Thrivent Partner Emerging Markets Equity Fund has been managed by Aberdeen Managers Limited since Feb. 26, 2015. It invests primarily in companies of countries that are considered to have an "emerging" or "developing" stock market. According to the United Nations, more than fifty percent of the world's population resides in emerging market countries, such as Brazil, Russia, India and China. Emerging market countries often have younger, growing populations, an expanding middle class, developing infrastructure and improving monetary and fiscal policies. These factors often help contribute to faster growth rates compared to their developed country counterparts, but with more volatility.

Investment Strategy/Process

The Fund invests primarily in the equity securities of companies based in emerging stock markets. It uses a disciplined investment process which uses proprietary research to seek to identify quality companies (based on factors such as strength of management and business), that trade at reasonable valuations based on factors such as earnings growth and other key financial measurements.
