Fund Description

The Thrivent Money Market Fund is managed as a government money market fund according to rules established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) that are designed so that the Fund may maintain a stable, $1.00 share price. Those rules generally require the Fund to invest only in high quality securities that are denominated in U.S. dollars and have short remaining maturities. The Fund is also required to maintain a dollar-weighted average maturity of not more than 60 days and a dollar-weighted average life of not more than 120 days.

Investment Strategy/Process

The Fund tries to produce current income while maintaining liquidity by investing at least 99.5% of its total assets in U.S. government securities, cash and repurchase agreements collateralized fully by government securities or cash. The Adviser invests in other securities by selecting from the available supply of short-term government securities based on its interest rate outlook and analysis of quantitative and technical factors. Although the Fund frequently holds securities until maturity, the Adviser may sell securities to increase liquidity. The Fund changed its principal investment strategy and began operating as a government money market fund on February 1, 2016. Prior to this date, the Fund also held other types of money market instruments such as commercial paper.

Risks: The Fund invests at least 99.5% of its total assets in government securities, cash and repurchase agreements collateralized fully by government securities or cash. You could lose money by investing in the Fund. Although the Fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the Fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The Fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the Fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the Fund at any time. Credit risk is the risk that an issuer of a bond to which the Fund is exposed may no longer be able to pay its debt. A weak economy, strong equity markets, or changes by the Federal Reserve to its monetary policies may cause short-term interest rates to increase and affect the Fund's ability to maintain a stable share price. Securities issued or guaranteed by U.S. government-related organizations are not backed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. government.

<sup>2</sup>7-Day Current Yield is the yield generated by an investment in the Fund over a 7-day period ended on the date of the calculation and expressed as an annual percentage. 7-Day Effective Yield is calculated similarly to the 7-day current yield, except that the effective yield assumes that income earned from the Fund's investments is reinvested and generating additional income. It is expressed as an annual percentage. The yield quotation more closely reflects the current earnings of the Thrivent Money Market Fund than the total return quotation.
