

January 2019

Dear Valued Shareholder:

The Thrivent fund listed below was involved in a merger that occurred June 28, 2018. As a shareholder of this fund, we are required by federal tax law to provide you with a summary of tax information and designations. This information is typically disclosed in a fund's annual report. However, because the fund has merged and will no longer be included in the annual report, we are providing the federal income tax information in this letter.

You do not need to take any action with this information, and it should not be used to prepare your income tax return. Applicable forms 1099 and a tax guide will be mailed by February 2019 for use in preparing your 2018 income tax returns.

Tax Designations
Fund	Dividends Received Deduction for Corporations	Qualified Dividend Income for Individuals	Distributions of Long-Term Capital Gains
Thrivent Growth and Income Plus Fund	13.126%	40.506%	$1,411,284

The Fund designates the above percentage of dividends declared from net investment income as dividends qualifying for the 70% dividends received deduction for corporations or as qualified dividend income for individuals under the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003 for the fiscal period ended June 28, 2018.

Pursuant to IRC 852(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Fund also hereby designates the respective amount reflected in the above table under the column heading Distributions of Long-Term Capital Gains, as long-term capital gains distributed during the year ended June 28, 2018, or if subsequently determined to be different, the net capital gain of such fiscal period.
