

THRIVENT DIVERSIFIED INCOME PLUS FUND

THYFX | CLASS S

Thrivent Diversified Income Plus Fund is highly diversified and seeks to generate income from a variety of sources while maintaining potential for capital appreciation.

Fund Key Points

Strategic targets

The fund's management team employs mean-variance optimization to set strategic targets across several income-producing sectors in order to maximize diversification and income potential while minimizing volatility and interest rate risk.

Variety of income-producing securities

The fund managers invest in a variety of income-producing securities, including bonds and equities. The fund also opportunistically may hold preferred securities, convertible bonds, income-generating closed-end funds, business development corporations and master limited partnerships.

Active portfolio management

Portfolio managers work with analysts to manage a specific sector of the portfolio. Senior portfolio managers manage credit and duration risk at the overall portfolio level, while determining tactical overweights to attractive sectors.

“ While we primarily invest in higher yielding fixed income securities and equities, we may at times opportunistically allocate to a variety of other income-oriented instruments including equity-like securities.”

Fund Asset Allocation Over Time

ACTIVELY MANAGED FOR ALL MARKET ENVIRONMENTS

Fund Risks: The Fund invests in debt securities and equity securities. The value of the Fund is influenced by factors impacting the overall market, certain asset classes, certain investment styles, and specific issuers. The Fund may incur losses due to incorrect assessments of investments by its investment adviser. Bond prices generally fall as interest rates rise. Credit risk is the risk that an issuer of a debt security may not pay its debt, and high yield securities are subject to increased credit risk as well as liquidity risk. Leveraged loans, REITs, preferred securities, convertible securities, sovereign debt, and mortgage-related and other asset-backed securities are subject to additional risks. Foreign investments involve additional risks, including currency fluctuations, liquidity, political, economic and market instability, and different legal and accounting standards; these risks are magnified for investments in emerging markets. An ETF is subject to additional fees and expenses, tracking error, and the risks of the underlying investments that it holds. The use of derivatives (such as futures and swaps) involves additional risks and transaction costs, which could leave the Fund in a worse position than if it had not used these instruments. The Fund may engage in active and frequent trading of portfolio securities in implementing its principal investment strategies.

Duration: A measure of a portfolio's sensitivity to changes in interest rates; the longer the portfolio's duration, the more sensitive it is. Also, the longer the duration, the greater potential risk or reward.

Investing in a mutual fund involves risks, including the possible loss of principal. The prospectus and summary prospectus contain more complete information on the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the fund, and other information, which investors should read and consider carefully before investing.
